School clubs will give birth to small communities, which will attract students relying on the same interests such as music, arts, ecology or literature. Club activities target to help the students develop a sense of unity and true ardor of teamwork.

The aims & objectives of the clubs:

- The clubs will stimulate the impetus of the students to showcase the talent instilled and whatever else they learn in and outside the classrooms.
- The participation in clubs can hone the students' communication skills & foster creative thinking.

- Clubs will propagate highly engaged teams determining sheer productivity.
- The elementary lessons of literature, art & craft, ecological equilibrium & performing art etc. will be enjoined to the students.
- Overall cognitive development is the key to unlock genuine growth.

To foster and harness various different talents of different students coming to VSN from multifarious backgrounds we have 4 clubs to provide the young learners' intellectual aspirations and self-expression. The clubs are:

Life, it is said cannot be measured into units, but rather experienced in its intensity and variety and it is the life of social luminaries which best exemplify this. Keeping this in view, VSN has decided to split the united mass of students into four fold divisions i.e, houses (R N Tagore/A P J Abdul Kalam/J C Bose/Kalpana Chawla), each with the name of four glorious figures from different walks of life, with the following aims and objectives:

- Promoting healthy sense of competitiveness and growth in realms of art, culture, sports and literary performances
- Developing teamwork, sportsman spirit and leadership qualities among students
- Increasing technical coordination and spirited exchange of ideas, information and materials among house members and clubs
- Translating ideas into tangible projects and enriching activities for metacognitive development of participants

School Prayers

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high; Where knowledge is free;
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls;
Where words come out from the depth of truth;
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection; Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit;
Where the mind is led forward by thee into ever-widening thought and action
Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.

Rabindranath Tagore

Prayer Before Class:

O God, enlighten me to do my work in a manner most pleasing to you.

Prayer After Class:

O God, I thank you for all the necessary knowledge you have given me today, through my teachers and books.

We give you thanks, almighty God,

For all the benefits you have showered upon us.

We thank you for our parents, teachers, friends, forgive us, dear God,

For everything.....

And for all the wrong things we have done today

This we ask for your love sake.

-Amen
